Here is the problem discussed in video (1) of the "Lenses, mirrors, reflection, refraction" video series:

An object .08 meters high is placed .2 m from a convex lens. If the distance from the image to lens is .4 m, what's the height of the image?